ARTICLES ABOUT BERNARD TURNOCK MD, MPH

1. Turnock History as Director of Illinois Department of Public Health

ARTICLES AUTHORED BY TUNOCK AVAILABLE HERE IN PDF FIES

1. Local health department workforce recruitment and retention: challenges and opportunities (2013)
3. Local public health workforce benchmarks (2011)
5. Tool kits and maps for public health administrators (2010)
7. Sustaining leadership in public health improvement in Illinois over five decades (2007)
8. History will be kind (2007)
12. MAPP in the classroom: oxymoron or opportunity (2005)
14. Public health funding: one hand giveth while the other taketh away (2004)
19. A conceptual framework to measure performance in the public health system (2001)
25. Accrediting public health organizations: the ducks is on the pond (1998)
30. From measuring to improving public health practice (1997)
31. Local health department effectiveness in addressing the core functions of public health: essential ingredients (1996)
34. Evaluating the performance of local health agencies: the 10 public health practices vs. the 10 public health services – a clarification (1995)
35. Roles for state-level local health liaison officials in local public health surveillance and capacity building (1995)
37. Local health department effectiveness in addressing the core functions of public health (1994)
38. Implementing and assessing organizational practices in local health departments (1994)

42. Incorporating outcome standards into perinatal regulations (1986)
43. The decline in perinatal and infant mortality in Chicago during the 1980s (1985)
44. Approaches to reducing infant mortality in Illinois (1983)
45. Patterns of utilization of special care nurseries in New York City (1982)
46. Evaluation of an EMS regional referral system using a tracer methodology (1980)
47. Family-centered care activities by size of maternity service (1979)